EEO Counselors Needed

The 6th ASG Equal Employment Opportunity Office is recruiting civilian employees to serve as collateral-duty EEO counselors.

Any civilian in a permanent position (AF or NAF) is eligible for this program. EEO counselors serve as a bridge between management and employees, and help to ensure that workplace discrimination complaints are resolved at the lowest possible level.

Free training - which meets Army requirements and leads to certification - will be offered Aug. 8 to 12 on Patch Barracks.

For more information call 421-2649/civ. 0711-729-2649 or e-mail sandie.wallace@us.army.mil.

CHILDREN AND TEENS

Community Safety Announcement

Skateboarders, bicyclists and inline skaters are reminded that helmets and other safety equipment are required at all times on all area installations. Failure to wear proper equipment is not only unsafe, but is also a violation of 6th ASG policy.

For more information call the Safety Office at 421-2752/civ. 0711-729-2752.

Child and Youth Services' Waiting Lists

Community members interested in childcare are encouraged to visit the Child and Youth Services Central Enrollment Registration Office in Patch Barracks' building 2347 to place their child on an appropriate waiting list.

Excess Demand Waiting List: Includes the names of children of any single or dual-working families waiting for care and who are not currently enrolled in a viable childcare option. Children move from the excess demand waiting list to the preference for care sub-waiting list when parents either a) accept care in a location or type of care that is not their preferred care option or b) decline a viable care option and choose to wait for their preferred care option.

Preference for Care Waiting List: Provides parents with a preferred childcare center and program (full day or part day) that they have chosen to enroll.

Projected Demand Waiting List: Used for unborn children; children not yet in country where the parent is not actively employed (for children birth to kindergarten age only); or families seeking care more than 6 weeks out.

For more about CYS waiting list procedures see the July 19 edition of The Citizen or call 430-7480/civ. 0711-680-7480.
